William Dowlings' Furryhill Flock is the oldest flock (40 years and more) of Bluefaced Leicester's in Southern Ireland and was co-founded alongside Jane King, of whom our Memorial Cup, awarded annually in Ballinrobe, is named after. The Furryhill Traditional flock of Leicester's is renowned within the breed. William and Jane, through their flock of Bluefaced Leicester's and Mule sheep, pioneered the breeds here in Southern Ireland and through their work assisted in the formation of mule groups and the South of Ireland Bluefaced Leicester Club here in Southern Ireland. This is a once off opportunity to source quality Traditional Sheep. William, known better to the South of Ireland Bluefaced Leicester Club members as Willie, wishes each and every purchaser the best of luck with his sheep and hope's they bring as much enjoyment and satisfaction to them as they did to the founder members of the Furryhill Flock.
